KING COUNTY OFFICE OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER

FROM JAIL: 0-296-7662

Hearing impaired ONLY call: 711

If you are released on personal recognizance or bail and are unable to hire a lawyer,
IMMEDIATELY report in person to:

KING COUNTY OFFICE OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER

Waltheu Building, (Main Office) 123 Third Avenue South, 4th Floor, Seattle, WA 98104

OR

King County Courthouse, Room E-215 and E-216, Seattle, WA 98104

OR

Maleng Regional Justice Center, 401 Fourth Avenue North, #1M-1264, Kent, WA 98032
206-296-7662

HOURS: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday

DO NOT ASSUME THAT YOU AUTOMATICALLY HAVE A LAWYER. You must contact this office immediately to see if you qualify and to allow time to assign a lawyer for you. Have your citation, complaint, summons or other papers given to you by the court ready when you call or come in to the office. Even if an attorney was originally assigned while you were in-custody, upon release you must be interviewed to see if you continue to qualify for public defense services.
